Geometric shapes character exercise

1. Draw several geometric shapes on a plain piece of white paper (circle, triangle, square, rectangle, blob, star, etc.).

2. What personality type does each shape suggest to them? Write the personality qualities that each shape suggests next to the shape. Come up with at least three qualities.

3. Take five of the following characters from The Crucible and assign them a shape:
   - John Proctor
   - Abigail
   - Rev. Parris
   - Betty Parris
   - Mr. Hale
   - Mr. Putnam
   - Mrs. Putnam
   - Tituba
   - Rebecca

4. Write a sentence under each shape that explains your choice. For example, if you decide that John Proctor is a rectangle you need to clearly explain WHY you made that choice. Your explanation should reference a plot event, or the narrator’s description of the character.

5. Your paper should be labeled: Geometric Shapes Exercise.

6. Your name should be clearly displayed in the front of the paper.

7. This Classwork/HW is worth 5 points. No turnitin.com for this assignment.
